INTRODUCTION

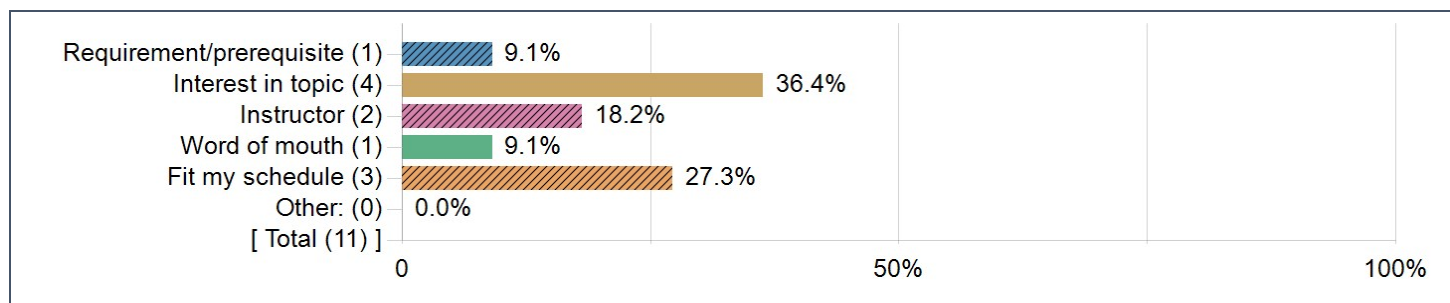

Teaching is a fundamental purpose of the University of Florida and the dissemination of new knowledge in our classrooms, studios, and clinics enables our students and trainees to fully explore their intellectual boundaries. Assessment and evaluation of our courses are designed to enhance instruction and maximize learning to meet the mission of the university. This report contains the results gathered through the new GatorEvals system. Students were invited to share their feedback on the teaching and course material. We invite every faculty member to examine the analysis in the report and utilize the resources provided in the report. Thank you for your continued great work!

Dr. Sohn provided a lot of reading heavy material which did improve my knowledge pertaining to Israeli law.
Dr. Sohn really cares about the material she is teaching and that is conveyed.
Dr. Sohn knows so much and really is able to speak on a lot of the topics and extra questions brought up in great length
Passionate about texts and topic through personal experience in Israel.
Dedicated to student growth via innovative assignments (not regurgitative exam based rather via personal reflection journals and class discussions)
Great office hours availability

What additional constructive feedback can you offer the instructor that might help improve the course?

Comments
A little faster response time on graded assignments would be very helpful.
I think it could be better by sticking to the assigned schedule better, there were some weeks things got pushed back and moved around and that made it a bit harder to know what would be expected in the following classes

What constructive suggestion(s) do you have for improving the course materials, organization, and assignments?

Comments
None :)
I think having a pdf or online version of the books available rather than having to go to the library for many of them would improve the general class
Everything was great really

Critical reading and public speaking
I gained a lot of knowledge on Israel and their legal system as well as history pertaining to their laws and judges
Public speaking, analytical thinking, the ability to concisely summarize information, reading
